On January 20, 2011 Fayette County Sheriff's Investigators assigned to the Tactical Narcotic Team made four arrests in reference to a prostitution sting that took place earlier that night.

On January 20, 2011 the Fayette County Tactical Narcotic Team (TNT) was acting upon a complaint that provided investigators with information of an online website that was advertising prostitution in the Fayette County area.

Investigators searched the website and discovered advertisements that were offering sexual acts in exchange for money in the Fayette County area. An undercover TNT investigator responded to two advertisements where the suspects agreed to meet the undercover investigator in Fayette County to perform sexual acts in exchange for money.

Investigators have arrested Travish Sunshine Hunter, 40, of East Point and Megan Paige Johnson, 21, of Hixson, TN and charged them both with Prostitution. Johnson was also charged with Violation of Georgia Controlled Substance Act for being in possession of prescription medication without a legal prescription.

Investigators also arrested Corey Montez Hollie, 31, of Atlanta charging him with Pimping and Violation of Georgia Controlled Substance Act for being in possession of prescription medication without a legal prescription, and Alexis Charles Jordan, 30, of Atlanta charging him with Public Drunkenness and Violation of Georgia Controlled Substance Act for being in possession of prescription medication without a legal prescription.
