The Fayette County Sheriff's Office has made arrests in connection with at least six residential burglaries that have occurred in north Fayette County between July 26, 2010 and August 3, 2010.

Fayette County Sheriff's deputies were patrolling an area in north Fayette County due to recent burglary activity when four men in a red passenger car, which matched a recent description, were seen in the area of Lafayette Drive and Bordeaux Drive. The Fayette deputy observed two of the men exit the red passenger car and walk east on Lafayette Drive while the car continued westbound. The Fayette Deputy followed the red passenger car and attempted to conduct a traffic stop on the vehicle on Bordeaux Drive. The red passenger car attempted to flee from the Fayette deputy when it lost control and crashed. The two vehicle occupants fled on foot from the deputy just a short distance from the two occupants which had already exited the vehicle. Upon seeing this, the remaining two men also fled from the Fayette County Sheriff's deputy.

Fayette County Sheriff's Deputies along with the assistance of Hawk One from the Fayette County Aviation Section, the Fayette County K-9 Section, and the Fayetteville Police Department have arrested Somoah Martin, 20, of Rex, Brandon S. Hightower, 17, Tony McKinstry, 17, and Rodriguez McKinstry, 20, all from College Park. They are currently in the Fayette County Jail where they are being held for Burglary.
