Fayette County Sheriff's Office Assists in Apprehending Violent Fugitive

FAYETTE COUNTY, GA– On April 19, 2024, The Fayette County Sheriff's Office's SWAT team played a vital role in assisting the United States Marshals Southwest Regional Task Force in apprehending a violent fugitive wanted out of Will County, Illinois.

On April 2, 2024, Dylan Debolt, a 19-year-old resident of Plainfield, IL, was involved in a gun battle in Will County, IL. Following the incident, Debolt fled the area and was found to be residing in Fayette County, GA. Debolt is facing serious charges including aggravated discharge of a firearm, aggravated unlawful use of a weapon, and reckless discharge of a firearm.

Thanks to the collaborative efforts of the law enforcement agencies involved. Dylan Debolt has been successfully captured and is currently being held in the Fayette County jail while he awaits his extradition to Illinois.

The Fayette County Sheriff's Office commends the dedication and teamwork displayed by all agencies involved in the apprehension of this dangerous fugitive.
