On April 10, 2013, the Fayette County Sheriff's Office conducted a warrant round up in an effort to apprehend fugitives from justice. Fayette Sheriffs Deputies were assisted by the US Marshals Southeastern Regional Fugitive Taskforce, Fayette County Fire and Emergency Services, Henry County Sheriff's Office, Peachtree City Police Department, and the Fayetteville Police Department. SWAT trained EMS personnel were available in the event of any medical emergency. The teams of law enforcement officers spread out around the Atlanta metro area to act on intelligence gathered by deputies in preparation for the round up. In all, twenty fugitives were apprehended with offenses ranging from outstanding felony warrants to misdemeanor violation of probation. According to Fayette County Sheriff Barry Babb "The operation was a success, our warrant division did a great job in preparing for this event and we really appreciate all of the other agencies that assisted us".
