On April 9, 2015 Fayette County Sheriff Barry Babb, Lt. Shane Whitlock, and Investigator Brennan Kersey attended the 2015 M.A.D.D. (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) Golden Shield Honors Ceremony held at the Georgia World Congress Center in Atlanta, GA. Investigator Kersey received the M.A.D.D. Silver Pin award for making over 50 D.U.I. arrests in 2014. Investigator Kersey made 63 D.U.I. arrests last year.

The DRE (Drug Recognition Expert) Red Achievement award was also given to Fayette County Sheriff's Investigators Brennan Kersey and Chad Cowart for performing over 15 drug influence evaluations as a DRE. The evaluation is a 12 step process used to determine which drug, or combination of 7 drug categories, a subject has used causing his or her impairment.

The Sheriff's Office congratulates the achievement of Investigator Brennan Kersey and Investigator Chad Cowart for keeping our roadways safer from impaired drivers.
