On August 17, 2014 Fayette County Sheriff's Office Traffic Investigators responded to Hilo Road near Highway 92 South to investigate a single vehicle traffic accident. Deputies received a call about the accident at 8:35 PM and arrived to find a Nissan 350Z resting in the yard of a residence off Hilo Road. The driver apparently lost control of the vehicle in a curve on Hilo Road leaving the roadway striking a culvert. The vehicle went airborne and rolled striking trees before coming to rest. The driver, 24 year old Christopher Hayes of Fayetteville, and 23 year old Morgan McMillan of Fayetteville were transported to Atlanta Medical Center. Mr. Hayes later died as a result of his injuries. The accident is still under investigation. Excessive speed and alcohol appear to be contributing factors.
