The Fayette County Sheriff's Office is proud to announce its inaugural Sheriff's Citizen Academy starting January 27, 2015. This Citizens Academy is an exciting 12 week program which is designed to provide citizens with basic information about the law enforcement profession and the daily operations of the Fayette County Sheriff's Office. The ultimate objective is to establish and maintain positive communications and develop partnerships between the community and the Sheriff's Office through training and education. The classes will be held every Tuesday evening for 12 weeks beginning January 27, 2015 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at the Sheriff's office located at 155 Johnson Avenue.

Topics covered will include:

Field Operations/Officer Survival/Mechanics of Arrest

Criminal investigations/Crime Scene Processing

Drug Identification/Awareness

Traffic laws/Traffic Investigation/DUI Investigations

Juvenile operations

Internet Crime/Identify Theft

SWAT Team Operations

Jail Operations

Court Operations

Laser Shot Video Simulation

Firearms Familiarization
