In the early morning hours of January 27, 2014 Fayette County Sheriff's Deputies conducted a traffic stop near the Fayette County and Fulton County border. The vehicle was being driven by 24 year old Thomas Moore of Molena, Georgia. When the vehicle unlawfully refused to stop, a vehicle pursuit ensued. The pursuit crossed the county line into Fulton County where Moore drove his vehicle into a dirt mound. Moore fled on foot and was captured a short distance later. Moore was transported to Grady Memorial Hospital upon suspicion that he may have ingested methamphetamine in an attempt to conceal it. Moore is charged with DUI and driving on a suspended license.
