On March 4, 2012 Fayette County Sheriff's Office Deputies responded to a residence on Diamond Point located in west Fayette County in reference to a deceased 16 year old male as a result of drowning. The 16 year old, Chase Corbitt Burnett, was found unresponsive by his father at approximately 6:00 AM that morning in the family hot tub.

Burnett's body has been sent to the Georgia Bureau of Investigation where an autopsy will be performed to identify any contributing factors which may have led to his drowning death.
