Fayette County Sheriff's Investigators made two arrests on October 8, 2011 in connection with a search warrant that was executed at a residence on LaFayette Drive earlier that day. Investigators have arrested Corean Virginia Coleman, 47, of Fayetteville and charged her with Possession of Marijuana less than one ounce, Theft by Receiving Stolen Vehicle and Giving a False Name to Law Enforcement Officers. Investigators also arrested Kayla B. Davis, 21, of Fayetteville and charged her with Possession of Marijuana less than one ounce and Possession of Cocaine.

This case involved a search warrant being executed at a residence on LaFayette Drive where a stolen vehicle was located. While searching the home investigators discovered illegal narcotic activity taking place inside the residence. Both Coleman and Davis were found to be in possession of controlled substances and were taken into custody. Coleman gave investigators a false name but was later positively identified.
