Fayette County Sheriff's Investigators made an arrest on October 19 in connection with an entering auto case which occurred on October 2, 2011 on Hilo Road. Investigators have arrested Joseph William Horn, 21, of Fayetteville and charged him with one count of Entering Auto.

This case involved Horn entering into an unlocked vehicle without permission where he then stole items from inside.

Fayette County Sheriff's Investigators made three arrests on October 7, 2011 in connection with a burglary case which occurred earlier that day on Kite Lake Road. Investigators have arrested Anthony Wilson, 23, and Franklin Hammock, 25, both of Hampton and both being charged with Burglary. Investigators also arrested Adrian McCrory, 23, of Fayetteville and charged her with Party to the Crime of Burglary.

This case involved Wilson and Hammock illegally entering into a residence on Kite Lake Road with intentions of committing a theft. While inside the home, Wilson and Hammock were met by the homeowner who held the two at gunpoint until the Sheriff's Deputies could arrive. After the two were taken into custody investigators learned that McCrory acted as party to the crime of burglary when she provided directions to victims home and an itemized list of valuables located inside.
